1. Enrique Ramirez / Ramirez, secretary to Vicente Lombardo Toledano, is reported to have sent letters to the CTAL affiliates informing them that the Secretariat of the CTAL is convoking a meeting to discuss peasant affairs in the Americas. The meeting is to be held in Mexico City in early May 1951 and the date tentatively set was 2 May. Delegates from most of the countries in which the CTAL is represented are expected to attend the meeting. The object of this meeting is to develop means for extending CTAL control over peasants in the Americas and possibly to form a new peasants' league.
2. It is reported that a meeting is to be held in Guatemala some time during 1951 to deal with land and air transportation matters. The CTAL reportedly plans to control the land and air transportation meeting from behind the scenes, but not to be publicly linked with it.
